WE regret to observe that Mr. William Foster Horniman, assistant-paymaster of H.M.S. Opal, shot himself dead in his cabin the other morning in Sydney Harbour. The cause of the sad occurrence is said to have been a love-affair.

A MARINE hawker was charged this morning with being unlawfully in possession of a bunch of keys belonging to Mr. J. H. COX. It will be remembered that when that gentleman had his watch and chain stolen the keys were also taken. Detective Sergeant Macdonald found them on the prisoner's stall, and he gave a very lame account of how he got them. He was discharged with a caution.

THE Band will play at the Officers' Mess, Murray Barracks, to-morrow evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. The following will be the programme:—

March	"Umbria"	Sinclair.
Overture	"Zanetta"	Auber.

Selection	"Barbe Bleue"	Offenbach.

JOHN MORAN, Bandmaster.

A GERMAN sailor named Kalinka had rather hard lines this morning. Last night he was near Gough Street and wanted a rickshaw. When he called out, about forty vehicles charged him, and when he naturally hit out at them his stick fell on the softest head of the lot, and the "bleed" came. He paid $10 to the credit of the Court, and presented $2 to the injured Chinkie. Moral—though rickshas impale thee, retaliate not.

THE native paper Hu-pao states that the Imperial troops have gained a complete victory at Pilam, Formosa, over the revolted Chinese colonists, and have utterly routed their allies, the aboriginal savages. At Chang-hwa, however, matters are still serious, the town being still closely besieged by the enemy. On the 17th October, 2,000 of the insurgents attempted to carry the place by a surprise, but were checked by a large stream, and could not get further than Lung Wang Yido, where Generals Tow Yü-tsun and Ching Tzo-tao fell upon them in their turn, when they least expected it, and killed more than 100 of them. The rest fled, but the siege of Chang-hwa has not yet been raised.

THE following are the Orders of the Day for the meeting of the Legislative Council to be held on Wednesday, 7th inst. at 4 P.M.:—

1. Financial Minutes.

2. Reports of Finance Committee, Nos. 28 and 29.

3. First reading of a Bill entitled "An Ordinance for the naturalization of Elias Isaac Elias, otherwise Elias Isaac Elias Zachariah."

(b.) The Appropriation Bill, 1889.

5. To resume Committee on the following Bills:—

(b.) A Bill entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 1 of 1876."

AN Italian Opera Company left Genova by the German mail steamer of the 28th ulto. for Singapore and Manila, where they are expected on or about the 28th inst.

THE three desperadoes who were captured by P. S. Euanson and P. C. Parker at Yau-ma-ti on the 31st ulto. were brought up again at the Police Court this morning. They said they were salt-smugglers, and had been driven ashore by excise-officers. They were fined $15 each, and their revolvers and other weapons confiscated.

MR. KORSHOLM, the ill-fated mate of the wrecked steamer Waiting, who was drowned in crossing Tamsui bar, was buried on October 18th, every foreigner in Tamsui attending the funeral. Up to latest advices the body of Mr. McCallum had not been recovered, although the British Consul had offered a reward of $25 to any person bringing it in.

THE information we published the other day to the effect that the arrangement with the China Merchants' Company to take over the steamers Smith and Cass, constructed in England for Messrs. Russell & Co. acting on behalf of Liu Ming-chuan, Governor of Formosa, had fallen through, appears to be correct. Messrs. Melchers & Co. have been appointed agents for these vessels in Shanghai.

ST. PETER (standing at the gate, to applicant for admission into the fold)—"You say you have been engaged in writing "Fragrant Waters Murmurs" for the China Snail?" "Brownie"—Yes, your reverence. "St. Peter—"Step into the chariot, please." "Brownie"—How soon does it ascend? St. Peter—"It doesn't ascend, my friend; it goes down." Exeunt amidst showers of blue flame and fire-crackers of the "Maen Shing" brand.

THE first-floors of Nos. 96 and 98, Wellington Street, are occupied by the Kwan Wo Club, and the approach through the first-named house is blocked up. Just before nine o'clock last night some Anarchical individual planted a considerable quantity of powder, with some kerosine-soaked rags, at the disused doorway, and managed to ignite it and get away before it went off. When it did go off it made such a report that at the Central Police Station it was taken for the nine o'clock gun, and created the impression among the members that their time had come. The door was blown open, and a little of the woodwork set on fire. Everybody in the vicinity ran out, scared to death almost, and in the rush the perpetrator was undiscovered. He is supposed to be somebody who had lost money at the Club, and wanted to have his revenge.

ACCORDING to the Shen-pao, the landing at Pilam, the seat of the present rising in Formosa, is very difficult and dangerous, especially when, as is nearly always the case, there is a strong wind and sea. Sampans are not employed, but tek-p'ais, i.e. bamboo rafts, which draw less water and are less easily capsized. General Chang Yüeh-low's eldest son had a narrow escape of being drowned when going off with four attendants to the war-vessel Fuh Po ("Rule the Waves") the other day, bound for T'ai-nan on service. The whole party were pitched into the water from the slippery tek-p'ai when not far from shore, and two were drowned, Chang Kung-tzo and a man named Tu being pitched on to the raft again by the next wave in a miraculous way, and rescued by the man-of-war.

MR. Y. A. GUBBAY is the latest sufferer among householders. At the Police Court this morning he prosecuted two of his servants—a "boy" and a coolie,—for stealing $177 last night. The boy aroused him this morning by telling him that an iron box which he kept in the dining room, and in which he deposited the money last night, had been broken open. He found on examination that it had been unlocked, and that his watch, to the chain of which the key of the chest was attached, had been moved from under one pillow of his bed and put under another. The boy had engaged the coolie after getting him to discharge the previous one, and they slept in the dining-room. He sent for Detective Sergeant Macdonald, who found that nothing had been forced, and then gave the two into custody. The boy had often seen him put money into the box.—In defence the boy told a very ingenious tale. A window in the room would not fasten, he said, and he slept there to guard the room. When he found the box open he aroused his master, who at first said he had lost $1,050, and afterwards admitted that he had forgotten to lock the box the night before. As to taking the key from the watch, if he had taken the money it was not likely he would have left the watch.—The coolie denied all knowledge of the affair and was discharged; the other was remanded.

A WRITER in the Chinese Times who dates from Shansi, gives the following satisfactory amount of the way in which foreigners are now received in that province, and adds an amusing note as to personal cleanliness among the Chinese:—Four years ago when the foreigner first came to the city of Taiku it was considered especially hostile to foreigners, and it was with difficulty that they secured lodgings in an inn inside the city walls. One of the foreigners coming into the city late one evening, was followed by a large and noisy crowd of boys and men, and he probably only escaped unhurt because he was on an unfrequented street and his inn was near. At that time it was very common to hear insulting language from men on the street, and the higher classes would have nothing to do with the foreigners. Now all is changed, and changed for the better. We are known and greeted pleasantly by all classes in every part of the city. We still hear "foreign devil" from children, but not once during the past summer have I heard this expression from men. A gentleman who calls himself a friend of the foreigners, says that "foreign devil" was the only name by which foreigners were known in this part of the country a few years ago, and he gives this as the origin of the term: Canton merchants, who formerly had an extensive trade in this province, sent large quantities of foreign buttons here, marked "foreign devil buttons," and as these buttons were sold widely and known to be foreign, the people thought that "foreign devils" was the proper name for foreigners. "But now," he added with emphasis, "no one but fools and children calls people of your country foreign devils." It is probable that these fools and children speak the truth as to the regard in which the Chinese hold us, but outwardly we receive the best of treatment. Speaking of personal uncleanliness, a woman who called on a foreign lady a few days since gives her testimony. This woman belongs to a respectable family and may be considered a representative person. "You foreign ladies bathe very often, I hear," she said to the foreigner. On being told that this was true, she said, "We Chinese women do not." We wash our hands and faces, but we never wash our bodies; and," she added confidentially, "our bodies are very much blacker than our hands and faces."

MANILA papers record the first serious accident resulting in loss of life, brought about by the steam tramway that runs between the capital and Malabon. A sexagenarian who happened to cross the line on the 31st ulto., was caught by the engine, and instantaneously killed.

OUR Sanitary Board have done very little good so far, but there is a grand field before them. We hope to see them actually at work very soon. Improved sanitation in England has led to a diminution of the death rate. Since 1881 the rate has fallen from 20.5 to 18.8 per thousand.

WE are indebted to some person unknown for a copy of the Port Augusta (South Australia) Despatch, containing a column of laudation, carefully marked, of a performance given by the Fisk Jubilee Singers. The inference we draw from this is that the Fisk Jubilee Singers contemplate paying Hongkong a visit.

CHINESE thieves are very barren in resource. They have only about three defences when they get paraded before the Magistrate—they are either entirely innocent, the victims of perjury, or they were somewhere else. They usually act on Mr. Weller's recommendation—"try a halleybi." One of the profession broke the record this morning. He was a passenger on the Glencoe, and, as one of the passengers had been robbed, was searched with the rest. A cheap watch was found on him, and on being asked where he got it he paralysed Sergeant Harkin by saying that he stole it. He seemed to glory in his guilt, or else he couldn't think of a likely story, for at the Police Court to-day he repeated his admission, saying that he acquired it in Singapore when the owner wasn't looking. He would have saved having to go to gaol for two months if he had also stolen the money to pay the fine of $30 which Mr. Pollock imposed.

AT the Police Court this morning, Mr. H. L. Dalrymple charged two of his coolies with refusing to obey lawful orders. He said that yesterday morning Mrs. Dalrymple ordered the chair and four coolies, wanting to come down from Mount Gough to town. The coolies refused, and repeated the refusal when asked to do so by himself. The defendants also refused to let two other servants get the chair, and would neither go away or do as they were told. They got $7.50 a month and allowances.—P.C. Sinclair said that two of the coolies came to the Mount Gough Station and complained that they had been asked to clean windows, which they were not engaged to do.—In defence the first coolie said that they were asked to carry water and clean windows, and in the middle of their work they were ordered to get the chair out. As they had not finished their other jobs they refused, and Mr. Dalrymple struck them. Mr. Pollock fined them $4 each.

THE Chinese Government, we observe from the Peking Gazette, is still liberally supplying funds for the Yellow River repairs. Wu Ta-ch'êng, Director-General of the Yellow River, has lately been notified that, in accordance with a request made by his predecessor, the Board of Revenue is directed to forward to him the sum of two million taels for the repair of the embankment at the Chêng-chou. The Director-General, in reply, remarks that the nine million taels previously supplied are almost all expended, and that the stock of materials on hand is not large. The preservation of the existing works is costing money every day, and it is necessary in addition to look forward to the moment when the breach shall have been closed, and to have funds in readiness for the protection of the completed works. For these reasons he has concluded, after careful calculation, that the supply authorised will not be sufficient, and asks that he may be furnished with another million taels as well. The Board has informed him that it is transmitting to him one million; but as it is of the utmost importance to execute and complete the repairs with all speed, he would pray that the Board may be instructed to send him the second million not later than the 23rd of October. The third million for which he has applied, he suggests might be provided by the Governors of the provinces, who could recoup themselves from their Yellow River Contribution Funds, or if these be not enough, from their Opium Likin Reserve Funds. This money he hopes may be caused to reach him before the end of the present year.

THE Hongkong Rifle Association started a second series of "Spoon" competitions on Saturday afternoon, when no fewer than 25 marksmen travelled over to Kowloon to take part in the sport. The distance was 200, and seven shots each under the usual conditions. Luckily the weather proved all that could be desired and as a consequence the shooting all round was far ahead of anything yet seen in these weekly contests. After a very close finish Mr. E. Robinson, who shot in capital form, was returned the winner with a score of 33 out of a possible 35. There were four 32's, Mr. R. Kennedy, Col.-Sergt. McClure, Mr. E. L. Woodin, and Police Constable H. Watson, but the two last named were penalised 3 points each for previous successes. Messrs. John Andrew, C. Ford, G. Sinclair and F. G. Collins, and Lieut. Pritchard totalled 30 each, Mr. E. J. Moses 29, Police Constable Carson and Messrs. R. F. Drury and W. D. Braidwood 28, Major Knight, R.E., and Messrs. R. Hopkins, W. Parfitt and E. R. Hope 27, Capt. Calder, R.N., 26, Mr. J. W. Noble, 25, Capt. Wilkinson, R.E., and Mr. H. Twyword 24, Mr. W. Legge 22, Mr. John Dade 21, and Mr. F. W. Cross 12. The capital shooting on Saturday is plain evidence that the object of the Rifle Association in starting these friendly wapinschaws has been attained to a considerable extent. It was expected that some inducement for "shootists" to practice would conduce to improved marksmanship, and that expectation has been realised. Of course there is still plenty of room for improvement, but the members are going the right way to become good shots. The following is a list of the winners in the first series of "Spoon" competitions:—

On an old tombstone in the neighborhood of Montreal:—

Here lies the Body of Mary Ann Gore,
Who died a maid though married before.
Her Father and Mother, Sisters and Brothers,
Wept Tears and Tears, and Tears and More,
And all for the Death of Mary Ann Gore.
Here lies the Body of Mary Ann Gore,
Who died a maid though married before.
Death came and took her with a Sigh,
Saying, Come Maid and Wife in One to Die.

SERIOUS FIRE ON THE PRAYA.

TWO LIVES LOST.

Opposite the newly-erected temporary Market on the Praya is a long, substantially built block of Chinese houses, belonging to Mr. Chater. The ground-floors are used as shops, and overhead the rooms are cut up into tiny family-houses. In one of the latter, which contained a quantity of dry-goods, a fire broke out about 6.30 on Saturday night, the origin being as yet unknown, although in all probability it was the usual one—insurance. As soon as it occurred everyone cleared out as fast as possible, with what they could pick up. A woman living overhead ran down with her baby hitched on her back and had just got outside when some born fool upstairs dropped a big box out of the window right on to the child's head, dashing its brains out and hurting the woman so considerably that she had to be taken to the Hospital. A woman on the verandah of the first floor of the same house fell into the road whilst trying to get round the pillar between that and the next house, the heat of the stonework preventing her from holding on. She was severely injured, and lies in a precarious condition. Whilst these accidents were occurring the flames were spreading rapidly, and in a few minutes the glare was observed by the look-out at the Fire Brigade Station, and the engines turned out. When they got into position all four stories in No. 6 were ablaze, the verandahs being hidden by the solid tongues of flame. A few minutes' delay occurred before steam was up, and when the Volunteer hose got to work it seemed impossible to save the houses immediately adjoining. The fire was burning inside far away out of reach of the water, the store running back quite fifty feet, and from end to end and top to bottom all was ablaze. When the Government engines began to throb, however, and half a dozen streams were thrown up, the flames at the front disappeared like magic, and although they frequently surged out again the smart way in which the whole Brigade worked as frequently repressed them. The roof, which is four stories high, was like a chimney, and owing to the narrowness of the Praya, on account of the Market, the hose could not be held at a commanding angle. Two or three branches were taken up the next houses, and did great execution, but the fire was fed on kerosine, bamboos, and other combustibles, and for three quarters of an hour it burnt almost as fiercely as ever. Just as it seemed to be under control it burst out at the top of No. 47, having crept along the beams. Several of the many powerful jets were diverted to the new outbreak, but the flames were too far back, and the next house, and the next, were successively endangered. Luckily the floors did not ignite, and the hose on the roof at length extinguished the new outbreaks before they had become serious, although all below was damaged by the salt water. No. 45 entirely escaped. The house where it started was of course entirely burnt out, which was no wonder, looking at the very faulty plan on which it was constructed. The only wonder was that the damage was so little. The ground-floor was insured for $2,000 with Turner and Co. on the 8th August.

The North German Gazette, in an article denying that Queen Natalie was expelled from Weisbaden after a promise of the Emperor to protect her, publishes the text of the Emperor's letter to Natalie. On June 2nd he wrote: "I am hastening to have the necessary inquiries made in order to be able to give instructions regarding the measure with which your Majesty believes yourself to be threatened. Meanwhile remain assured that within my territory you shall enjoy entire protection compatible with international laws towards your husband and the Servian Government."

On July 5th the Emperor wrote to Natalie as follows: "As a result of my inquiries I cannot support the opposition which your Majesty considers yourself bound to display to the demands of King Milan for the return of the Crown Prince. The King simply avails himself of his rights as a sovereign and father, which international law does not permit me to oppose. I therefore recommend you to place the Crown Prince at the King's disposal."

It is stated that Emperor William has ordered the Imperial insignia, especially the crown, to be altered in accordance with new designs.

The uprising of the natives of Zanzibar against the Germans is general and is spreading. Something like a holy war is declared by the negroes, instigated by Mohammedan slave-traders and provoked by the harsh measures of the Germans in taking possession of the coast territory handed over to them by the Sultan of Zanzibar. Germans and Englishmen alike are forced to flee for their lives. The posts along the coast are surrounded by thousands of natives mad with fanaticism.

The Germans at Lindi were saved by the brave conduct of Captain Curzon and Lieutenant Walter, who landed from a British gunboat, although the beach was swarming with hostile rebels, and brought them off safely. In a few moments more all would have been massacred, as were those at Kilva in sight of a German man-of-war.

There is no clew to the Whitechapel murderer. There have been various arrests on suspicion, but there is no hope that any of those detained will be wanted. The managers of the Financial News have offered a reward of £300 for the apprehension of the murderer. A fund for the same purpose will be raised by members of the Stock Exchange.

The Lord Mayor has offered a reward of £300 for the arrest of the Whitehall murderer. Drs. Forbes and Winslow, Sir Risdon Bennett and other medical experts are convinced that the perpetrator of the crime is a homicidal lunatic.

The examination of Professor Geffcken to-day lasted seven hours. He was calm. His wife and daughter were much affected by his imprisonment.

The decree imposes on immigrants an obligation to furnish a declaration with documents to prove their identity. The declaration must be of such a nature as not to evoke protests founded on engagements to which France is bound by conventions. No fresh tax will be levied. The new regulations do not affect persons entering France for business or pleasure. Visitors who intend to become residents must, within a fortnight, declare to the Mayor their own and their father's and mother's names, their nationality, profession, wife's and children's names, ages and nationality, and must produce vouchers in support of their declarations. In the event of a change of domicile it will be necessary to make a new declaration. Persons at present residents of the country will be allowed one month in which to comply with the decree. Failure to comply will involve police penalties, irrespective of the right of the Government to expel the offenders from the country.

The safety valve blew out and was followed causing the loss of 50 persons by instant death of the engineer. The explosion occurred in the vicinity of Colon, while at anchor. The vessel was cut in two as if by a knife.

An American, who refused to give his name or any account of himself, but said he only recently arrived from New York, was arrested at 11 o'clock to-night on suspicion of being the East End murderer. He was well dressed, rather tall, of slight build and clean shaven. He accosted a woman in Whitechapel, asked her to go with him and threatened if she refused, to "rip her up." The woman screamed and the man rushed to a cab. The police gave chase, seized the man and took him to the Leman-street Police Station, where he exclaimed to the Inspector in charge: "Are you the boss? I guess I'm in a pretty fix now."

He was placed in a cell, and will probably be charged to-day.

Baldwin and his parachute came to grief this evening at Alexandra Palace The wind was strong and gusty, and the balloon, which was being held down by sand bags struggled to get free. Baldwin, at an apparently favorable moment, gave the command to let go. On this occasion Baldwin was balked in his ascent by one man not getting the sand bag off. The result was that the balloon was carried off straight toward a huge oak tree close to the wooden paling. For a moment it seemed as if the aeronaut, should he escape being dashed against the palings, would be brought to grief in a contact of tremendous violence with the tree.

Baldwin immediately perceived the imminent danger of his position and quickly jumped from the balloon, luckily avoiding the palings and falling on the grass inside the inclosure. He hurt his left wrist seriously, but was on his feet again instantly. He was cheered most heartily by the large concourse of spectators.

Baldwin's drop was quite fifty feet, and it is doubtful whether an ascent will be made on Saturday.

Sir Charles Warren, chief of the metropolitan police, has decided to employ bloodhounds to discover the perpetrator of the Whitechapel murders. The police place confidence in the story of George M. Dodge, the seaman, who states that in August last he met a Malay cook named Alaska, in London; that Alaska told him he had been robbed of all he had by a woman of the town, and threatened unless he found the woman and recovered his property, he would kill and mutilate every Whitechapel woman he met. The police are searching everywhere for the Malay.

Acting on information, those investigating the Whitechapel murders seized and occupied several houses in that section.

The Herald's European edition published a map, with an article revealing Bismarck's secret and foreshadowed partition of Europe by the three Emperors, and all the leading French papers reproduced it. The matter is creating much interest. The article says the Emperors thoroughly understand each other, and to-day the entire mechanism of Premier Bismarck's work-shop is directed against England. When the wires are all laid he will strike England's most vulnerable points, her Eastern possessions, her enormous trade with the East, and her maritime commerce all over the world. The eventual annexation of the delta of the Rhine, including Holland, Luxemburg and part of Belgium, by Germany, is already tacitly assented to by Russia and Austria. Holland's colonies go with Holland. In consideration of these acquiescence, Russia and Austria are to have adequate compensations. Russia is to have a perfectly free hand to take whenever she chooses Constantinople, the eastern half of the Balkan Peninsula and all the cis grade in Central Asia, Persia and India. Austria is to have the western half of the Balkan Peninsula and Salonica. Each empire will have a magnificent outlet from [illegible]

Professor Geffcken is exercised over what he considers the unnecessary revision of the late Emperor Frederick's diary before giving it to the Deutsche Rundschau and Editor Rodenberg is exercised much more. Herr Rodenberg stopped all work immediately on hearing of the trouble over the publication, and sent a telegram placing himself at the disposal of the Government. But the publishers had already revealed Geffcken's name, much to Herr Rodenberg's surprise.

Dr. Brohmerte, under the title of "Emperor Frederick as a Friend of the People," has published a sixty-page pamphlet containing contributions from the chief promoters of philanthropy in the kingdom who met Emperor Frederick in that connection. Contributors include Von Bunsen, Curtius, Eberts, Gneist and Schrader. The pamphlet gives trustworthy information regarding the sentiments, aims and acts of Frederick. Professor Curtin says that the trait of magnaminity was a characteristic of the late Emperor from childhood. Bunsen writes: "With nothing was the soul of Frederick more deeply penetrated from his earliest years than with the desire of the welfare of all classes of the people."

DUBLIN, October 7th.

John Dillon, member of Parliament, was unable to attend a great demonstration held in Tipperary to which he had been invited to-day, but sent a letter, in which he said: "Circumstances which I will not enter into at present have unhappily added new courage to the camp of the evictors, and the rackrenting landlords, who last spring were practically utterly beaten and disheartened, now seem to be inspired with new hope. I have been able to ascertain, since my release, that an attack in force has been carried on all the estates in Ireland where tenants are courageously resisting rack-renting and extermination, and at the same time it is impossible for any one who has carefully watched the proceedings of the land commissioners to shut his eyes to the fact that the land courts are rapidly becoming simply a department of the machinery now in existence for the oppression of Irish tenants. Under these circumstances, it seems to me that there is no hope for Irish tenants except in some method which will convince the landlords that it may not pay to treat them in an insolent and unreasoning spirit. This winter is sure to be one of fierce struggle, and I desired extremely to make a personal appeal to the people of Tipperary to throw themselves in the movement with all their vigor." Demonstrations of like character were held in numerous places throughout the country and resolutions passed strongly supporting the present movement.

Unfortunately, such a thing as a foreign settlement, except the Japanese, does not exist in Fusan In treaties with the United States of America, Germany, Great Britain, Russia, Italy and France, a cemetery for foreigners at Korea has been stipulated for, but it has not been marked out yet.

Silk and Fire Crackers

THE Undersigned respectfully inform the Foreign Merchants in Canton that for the past twenty years they have carried on business in silk piece-goods in Sai-Hing Street, Canton, under the chop signification of "TSUN SHING," and venture to believe that the superior quality of their goods have given universal satisfaction to their customers. In order to avoid possible imposition they have considered it indispensable to prefix to their designation the surname of the head of the firm, "CHAN" and henceforth the Firm's signification, in the silk branch, will be known as "CHAN TSUN SHING."

Further, in respect of the Fire Cracker branch, which hitherto has been carried on under the title of "MAEN SHING," under which we have acted as sole dealers in Canton for many years and during this period our chop, by reason of the superior quality of the ingredients we employ as well as the first class character of our manufacture, has maintained its pre-eminent position in the markets of the United States of America; but lately numerous fraudulent imitations of our goods have been attempted, which has necessitated, in the interests of the public, our establishing a new Fire Cracker brand that will hereafter be known as the "CONSTITUTION" Cracker. It will be recognised by our old established mark underneath, viz., No. 1 Golden Dragon chop and our new prefixed title "CHAN MAEN SHING" at the bottom of the label of our Fire Crackers.

THIS COMPANY has been formed for the purpose of supplying the want which has been felt for many years past, of a well-planned and well-fitted modern hotel of sufficient dimensions to accommodate the large and constantly growing passenger traffic through Singapore, as well as supply the great demand for temporary or permanent residential chambers.

Singapore is the chief town of the British Crown Colony of the Straits Settlements, and is a leading place of call and coaling port on the great steam lines of communication with the Far East. It is moreover the centre of an extensive trade with India, China, the Dutch Indies, the Philippines, Siam, and other countries.

The present hotel accommodation in Singapore is quite inadequate, and it is proposed to acquire the fine site now partly occupied by the HOTEL DE L'EUROPE, and build thereon a hotel of much larger dimensions, and greatly improved construction and arrangement. Fully detailed plans have been prepared and the engagement of a first-class Manager is already secured.

Prospectus and Forms of Application may be had at any of the Agencies of the Company's Bankers, the HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION and the CHARTERED BANK OF INDIA, AUSTRALIA AND CHINA, or Mr. D. MCCULLOCH.

A certain number of Shares will be reserved for the Directors for Allotment to Hongkong Applicants.

APPLICANTS FOR SHARES will have to pay 1 per cent. extra, for the difference in Exchange between this Port and Singapore.
